RE: Full Tax Exemption for Certain Qualified Senior Citizens

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Mayor and City Council adopt an ordinance in accordance with Florida Constitutional Amendment 11 – Providing for Additional Tax Exemption from County and Municipality taxes for Certain Qualified Seniors. The new exemption can only be applied to a County or Municipality taxing authority once an ordinance is adopted by a super majority of the members of the Council. The Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners is also in the process of adopting such an ordinance that will apply to the upcoming 2013 tax roll.

BACKGROUND

On November 6, 2012, voters approved Amendment 11 of the Florida Constitution providing an additional homestead exemption for low income seniors that totally exempts a taxing authority's portion of taxable value. The eligibility requirements for this new additional senior exemption are the same as the current senior exemption. However the qualifying senior must also have maintained their home as their permanent residence for at least 25 years and a market value less than $250,000.

Based on 2012 Preliminary Roll, North Miami's operating tax levy is $15,874,833. There are approximately 205 qualified seniors in the City of which 32 will be affected by Amendment 11. This will result in an estimated loss in taxable value of $567,851 and at the adopted millage rate of 8.100, the tax revenue impact would be a loss of $4,600 to the City's budget.

If the City wishes to extend this new benefit to its constituents on the 2013 tax roll, an adopted ordinance must be delivered to the Office of the Property Appraiser no later than March 1, 2013.

Mr. Stephen Johnson
Manager
City of North Miami
776 NE 125th Street
North Miami, FL 33161

Dear Mr. Johnson:

RE: Florida Constitutional Amendment 11 – Provides for Additional Tax Exemption from County and Municipality taxes for Certain Qualified Seniors

On November 6, 2012, voters approved Amendment 11 of the Florida Constitution providing an additional homestead exemption for low income seniors that totally exempts a taxing authority's portion of taxable value. The eligibility requirements for this new additional senior exemption are the same as the current senior exemption. However, the qualifying senior must also have maintained their home as their permanent residence for at least 25 years and a market value less than $250,000.

The new exemption can only be applied to a County or Municipality taxing authority once an ordinance is adopted by a super majority of the members the governing body. Therefore, I would like to inform you that this new senior benefit afforded by Amendment 11 is available for your jurisdiction to adopt.

The Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners is in the process of adopting such an ordinance that will apply to the upcoming 2013 tax roll. Section 196.075, Florida Statutes, requires a county or municipal governing authority deliver their adopted ordinance to the Property Appraiser no later than December 1, 2012, for the exemption to be applicable for the 2013 tax roll. However, we will accept your ordinance approving this new exemption, if adopted and submitted to our office no later than March 1, 2013.

Enclosed is Property Tax Oversight Bulletin 12-13 containing additional details about these changes and an estimated fiscal impact for your review. If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may call me at 305-375-4004.

Again, if you wish to extend this new benefit to your constituents on the 2013 tax roll, an adopted ordinance MUST be delivered to the Office of the Property Appraiser no later than March 1, 2013.

Sincerely,

Lazaro Solis
Deputy Property Appraiser

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT 11
2012 General Election

Additional Homestead Exemption for Persons 65 and Older;
Low-Income Seniors Who Maintain Long-Term Residency on Property;
Equal To Assessed Value

Amendment 11 was approved by voters in the November 6, 2012 general election. This amendment changes Section 6(d) of Article VII of the State Constitution. It revises the existing additional homestead exemption for seniors, and authorizes a new additional homestead exemption for them.

Changes To the Existing Additional Homestead Exemption for Qualifying Seniors

- The amount of the exemption that can be granted to a qualifying senior in the ordinance adopted by a county or municipality, as changed by Chapter 2012-57, L.O.F., is now a flat $50,000, instead of an amount up to $50,000;
- A county and/or municipality can adopt an ordinance granting either or both of these additional exemptions authorized by the constitution for qualifying seniors.

Provisions Regarding the New Additional Homestead Exemption for Qualifying Seniors

- The amount of this exemption is equal to the assessed value of the homestead, up to a just value of less than $250,000; and,
- The owner must have made the property his or her permanent residence for at least 25 years; and,
- This exemption can only be granted by a super majority of the members of the county or municipal governing body (majority plus one).

Provisions That Apply to Both Additional Exemptions for Qualifying Seniors

- Existing provisions about how the income limitation is calculated and applied;
- Existing requirements for how a county or municipality can adopt an ordinance granting either or both of these exemptions; and,
- That the 2012 changes to the constitutional and general law provisions regarding both these additional exemptions will first apply to the 2013 tax roll, and to all subsequent tax rolls.

The changes to this amendment are implemented by Chapter 2012-57, Laws of Florida (L.O.F.).

Note:

The following criteria were used: (1) the folio had a senior exemption in 2012, (2) the last qualified sale took place prior to 1987 and (3) the just value of the property is under $250,000.

The count under "Qualified Seniors" represents all folios based on criteria. The count under "Seniors Affected" represents those folios that will actually show a reduction in taxable value. The difference are folios that already have a zero taxable value before applying the additional exemption.

These estimates are considered a worst-case scenario based on the 2012 Preliminary Roll values and 2012 adopted millage rates.
